BACKGROUND

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

This bill makes appropriations for the military functions of the Department of Defense for the period October 1, 2009, through September 30, 2010. Functional areas include the pay, allowances, and support of military personnel, operation and maintenance of the forces, procurement of equipment and systems, and research, development, test and evaluation. Appropriations for foreign military assistance, military construction, family housing, nuclear weapons programs, and civil defense are provided in other bills.

HEARINGS

The Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense began hearings on March 18, 2009, and concluded them on June 18, 2009, after nine separate sessions. The subcommittee heard testimony from representatives of the Department of Defense, other Federal agencies, representatives of organizations, and the public.

SUMMARY OF THE BILL

The Committee recommendation of $625,815,332,000 includes funding to develop, maintain, and equip the military forces of the United States in non-emergency appropriations.

The fiscal year 2010 budget request for activities funded in the Department of Defense Appropriations bill totals $629,685,852,000 in new budget authority including $128,595,016,000 in contingency funding and $290,900,000 in mandatory spending.

In fiscal year 2009, the Congress appropriated $625,282,485,000 for activities funded in this bill. This amount includes $477,644,889,000 in non-emergency appropriations and $147,637,596,000 in emergency supplemental appropriations.

The Committee recommendation in this bill is $532,847,000 above the amount provided in fiscal year 2009 and $3,870,520,000 below the amount requested for fiscal year 2010.

CLASSIFIED PROGRAM ADJUSTMENTS

The Committee recommends adjustments to certain classified programs, as explained in the classified annex to the Committee's report.

COMMITTEE INITIATIVES

In addition to items of interest to specific members, the Committee recommends funds for several initiatives which were not included in response to a request from a specific member. The items in this category are for programs, projects, or activities which the Committee believes are of inherent value for national defense. In several cases funds are restored for programs which were included in previous plans for the Defense Department and many others are for programs which the Committee believes are necessary to improve defense even though they have not been included under the request formulated by the administration. The initiatives in this category include increases for training ranges, alternative energy, corrosion control, and environmental remediation. Most projects include funding in several programs and across all services.

Light Attack Aircraft.—The Committee is aware that the Navy and Air Force are currently negotiating a memorandum of agreement to jointly conduct a demonstration designed to provide information on the benefits of a light attack aircraft to the warfighter. The Committee understands that the Navy and Air Force started this demonstration in fiscal year 2009 with a below threshold reprogramming of funding and anticipate reprogramming fiscal year 2010 funding to continue the effort. The Committee contends that this effort constitutes a new start and should have followed the new start notification process. Further, the Committee directs the Navy and Air Force to use the prior approval reprogramming process to address any fiscal year 2010 funding requirements.

The Committee is also aware that the Quadrennial Defense Review may help inform the fiscal year 2011 budget decisions on this issue. The Committee expects that any fiscal year 2011 request for light attack aircraft funding will be based on validated requirements, a documented concept of operations, and capabilities demonstrations that have been coordinated across the military services. The Committee also encourages the Department to conduct a full and open competition for the lease or purchase of light attack aircraft.

TITLE I
MILITARY PERSONNEL

Funds appropriated under this title provide the resources required for basic pay, retired pay accrual, employers' contribution for Social Security taxes, basic allowance for subsistence, basic allowance for housing, special and incentive pays, permanent change of station travel, and other personnel costs for uniformed members of the Armed Forces.

The President's fiscal year 2010 budget requests a total of $125,264,942,000 for military personnel appropriations. This request funds an Active component end strength of 1,425,000 and a Reserve component end strength of 844,500.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

The Committee recommends military personnel appropriations totaling $124,817,192,000 for fiscal year 2010. This is $447,750,000 below the budget estimate.

Committee recommended military personnel appropriations for fiscal year 2010 are summarized below:

MILITARY PERSONNEL OVERVIEW

The Department of Defense budget requests $125,264,942,000 for the military personnel pay accounts for fiscal year 2010; an increase of $10,821,052,000 or 9 percent over the current enacted amount of $114,443,890,000 excluding supplemental appropriations.

End Strength.—The Committee supports the Army’s new initiative to grow its end strength an additional 22,000 over the next few years and the Committee has fully funded this effort in title IX of this bill. The Marine Corps and Army Guard and Reserve components have achieved their grow the force end strength goals ahead of schedule and the fiscal year 2010 budget fully funds the sustainment of those end strength levels.

Budgeted End Strength Levels.—A Government Accountability Office [GAO] analysis of projected fiscal year 2010 end strength levels indicates that, based on current strength trends, several components should have either a lower total end strength or a less expensive combination of personnel than assumed in the fiscal year 2010 budget request. For this reason, the Army personnel account has been decreased by $45,000,000; the Air Force by $61,000,000; the Navy Reserve by $4,000,000; and the Air National Guard by $10,000,000.

Unobligated Balances.—Although the level of unobligated balances has decreased in recent years, a GAO analysis of past year obligation rates shows a continuing trend of underexecution for some components. For this reason, the Committee has determined that several active duty and reserve components’ fiscal year 2010 military personnel budget requests are overstated and can be reduced. Therefore, the Committee recommends a total reduction of $254,000,000 to the military personnel accounts.

TITLE II
OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

Funds appropriated under this title provide the resources required to prepare for and conduct combat operations and other peace time missions. These funds are used to purchase fuel and spare parts for training operations, pay supporting civilian personnel, and purchase supplies, equipment, and service contracts for the repair of weapons and facilities.

The President's fiscal year 2010 budget requests a total of $156,444,204,000 for operation and maintenance appropriations.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

The Committee recommends operation and maintenance appropriations totaling $154,005,801,000 for fiscal year 2010. This is $2,438,403,000 below the budget estimate.

Committee recommended operation and maintenance appropriations for fiscal year 2010 are summarized below:

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE OVERVIEW

Online Budget Justification Materials.—Subsequent to the official fiscal year 2010 budget submission, the Army proposed a change to Operation and Maintenance, Army to realign helicopter pilot training funding. Errata sheets were sent to the congressional defense committees to show the zero sum realignment. The Army then proceeded to update the online version of the OP-5 budget exhibits by completely replacing the originals with new OP-5s reflecting a revised request number in each of the budget line items affected. The Committee is very concerned about the Services updating online budget justification materials after the budget is submitted. The Services are directed to not update online budget justification materials unless an official budget amendment is submitted to the congressional defense committees through the Office of Management and Budget.

Restoration and Modernization Funding.—The Committee commends the Department of Defense for efforts in recent years to increase funding for the restoration and modernization of facilities. The Services have budgeted $1,200,000,000 for restoration and modernization [R&M] in fiscal year 2010 which will be used to upgrade facilities to meet new standards, fulfill new functions, or replace building components that exceed the overall service life of the facilities. R&M upgrades will bring systems to current code, improve handicap access, and increase force protection as well as energy efficiency which should reduce future costs of operation and maintenance. Even though obligations for R&M have increased over the past several years, based on data presented in the table below, the requested amounts for R&M have been much lower than obligations indicating a disconnect between what the Services are requesting funding for and what they are actually spending it on.

RESTORATION AND MODERNIZATION FUNDING

[Dollars in millions and do not include supplemental funds]

	Appropriated	Obligated	Percentage difference
Fiscal year 2006	$467	$1,608	+ 244
Fiscal year 2007	$332	$1,685	+ 407
Fiscal year 2008	$1,258	$2,555	+ 103

The Committee is concerned about the historical difference between the request and obligations for R&M. This trend seems to suggest that the Services are overstating requirements in other budget line items where funding may be easier to justify (such as readiness lines), with the knowledge that by the end of the year, some of the funding requested in those lines should be available to be moved to R&M. Funding adjustments included in the Operation and Maintenance tables are based on a 3-year average of the difference between what was allocated to R&M at the beginning of the fiscal year and what was obligated. The Committee recommends reducing the flexibility afforded in the O&M accounts over fiscal years 2006–2008 and encourages the Department to exert more discipline on the Services' requests to ensure requirements are requested in the correct budget line items and that R&M requests are at the appropriate level to fund critical facility requirements.

Strategic Communications.—The Committee believes that there is a legitimate role for the Department of Defense [DOD] in information operations [IO]. There is an especially important mission for the DOD in tactical psychological operations conducted in war zones such as Iraq and Afghanistan. These programs clearly fall into the category of traditional military operations.

The Committee, however, remains concerned about the Department's role in broader regional and theater-wide activities. The Committee believes that fundamental questions need to be answered by the administration concerning the role of the DOD in these activities and DOD's relationship with other government agencies that are also involved in IO and public diplomacy. It is also apparent that over the past few years DOD IO programs have suffered from a general lack of oversight and coordination in the executive branch.

The Committee notes that the Department has struggled to answer basic questions relating to the budget requests and organization of IO activities. The Department has only recently provided the Committee with updated fiscal year 2010 budget justification materials. This information shows that IO funding has grown significantly over the past few years. While the Committee is encouraged by the interim response from the Department to the reporting requirements contained in H.R. 2346, the fiscal year 2009 Supplemental Appropriations Act, there is clearly much work to be done by the Department to justify its IO program.

Therefore, the Committee makes the following recommendations to the base budget and the Overseas Contingency Operations request:

- A reduction of $7,900,000 for AFRICOM;
- A reduction of $10,900,000 for EUCOM;
- A reduction of $20,000,000 for SOCOM; and
- A reduction of $20,000,000 for CENTCOM.

Maritime Domain Awareness Oversight Offices.—The Navy is now the Department of Defense Executive Agent for Maritime Domain Awareness [MDA] and has stood up an office to handle the responsibilities of this assignment. This office is in addition to the office the Navy already established to carry out its own MDA efforts. The fiscal year 2010 budget request included an increase of about $4,000,000 to each of these offices above the fiscal year 2009 levels. The Committee believes the Executive Agent responsibility was established to drive toward integration of MDA information and has recommended a $2,000,000 reduction to encourage consolidation and more efficient and effective command and control of MDA efforts.

Naval Shipyard Apprentice Program.—The Committee directs that during fiscal year 2010 the Navy shall induct classes of no fewer than 100 apprentices, respectively, at each of the naval shipyards. The Committee further directs the Navy to include the costs of the fiscal year 2011 class of apprentices in its budget request.

U.S. Coast Guard.—The Committee is aware that Department of Defense [DOD] regulations currently restrict DOD mission appropriated funded activities from offering reimbursable rates to non-DOD agencies. This restriction forces the Navy to charge the U.S. Coast Guard fully burdened rates for drydocking services at Navy shipyards rather than reimbursable rates. Therefore, the Committee directs that funds appropriated under Operation and Maintenance, Navy may be used to pay overhead costs incurred by a Naval Shipyard when drydocking U.S. Coast Guard ships.

Naval Base Point Loma Detachment.—The Committee understands that the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard is undergoing several personnel and business operation changes with the stand up of the Naval Base Point Loma detachment. The Committee urges the Navy to provide the appropriate resources and oversight to ensure the transition plan is implemented in the most effective manner to minimize the cost and personnel disruptions at the shipyard.

Commission on Wartime Contracting.—The Committee has recommended an additional $3,200,000 above the base for the Commission on Wartime Contracting, providing a total of $12,300,000 for Commission operations in fiscal year 2010.

Security and Stabilization Assistance (Section 1207 Authority).—The Committee recommends $97,090,000 for the Security and Stabilization Assistance Program under the Department of Defense and does not anticipate providing additional resources to this program in the future. The Committee recommendation is $100,000,000 below the budget request which is equal to the amount recommended for the Emergency Crisis Fund in S. 1434, Department of State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations Bill, 2010. This new fund was created to provide the Department of State with increased flexibility to respond to urgent requirements, in the same manner and for the same purposes as projects funded under section 1207. The Committee believes that the establishment of the Economic Crisis Fund allows the State Department to meet emergent requirements that fall under their purview without relying on the Department of Defense. The $97,090,000 recommended for Security and Stabilization Assistance is provided as a bridging mechanism until the Economic Crisis Fund is fully implemented. Although the Committee believes future Security and Stabilization Assistance projects should be funded in Department of State budget requests, the Committee directs the Department of Defense and the Department of State to maintain and grow the interagency process created from the section 1207 program when formulating, reviewing, and approving future projects that would have been funded through section 1207.

Oil Refineries.—When making public contract announcements regarding the refining of fuel by U.S. companies, the U.S. Department of Defense should not provide the name of the country for which the fuel is being refined or the location of the facility that will refine the fuel.

Zirconium Oxychloride.—Zirconium Oxychloride is a raw material used in defense applications, such as cladding fuel rods on submarines and aircraft carriers. Zirconium Oxychloride is also used in aircraft applications to provide corrosion resistance in high performance parts requiring thermal stability, such as hot surfaces on jet engines and in hydraulic lines for high altitude operations. Currently, the United States is importing approximately 60 million pounds of Zirconium Oxychloride from overseas sources each year, which could cause uncertainty in cost, logistics, and availability of this important material. The Committee directs the Department to provide a report to the congressional defense committees within 120 days of enactment of this act on the use of Zirconium Oxychloride in military applications. This report shall include: an assessment of the usefulness of Zirconium Oxychloride in military applications, the stability of the foreign supplies of Zirconium Oxychloride, and the potential operational impact if foreign supplies were disrupted or discontinued.

DODEA: Reach Out and Read Program.—The Committee understands the Reach Out and Read early literacy program may present a unique opportunity to support military families with young children. The Committee therefore encourages the Department to consider funding the continued implementation of Reach Out and Read pilot projects.

Department of Defense Acquisition Workforce Development Fund.—The Committee supports the Department's request to include $100,000,000 for the Acquisition Workforce Development Fund in fiscal year 2010. The Committee notes that with unobligated balances carried forward from fiscal year 2009 in the amount of $470,000,000, the total fiscal year 2010 amount available for the Fund is $570,000,000. The Committee directs the Department of Defense to include a direct appropriation totaling $770,000,000 in the fiscal year 2011 budget request for the Defense Acquisition Workforce Development Fund.

TITLE III
PROCUREMENT

Funds appropriated under this title provide the resources required to purchase military equipment and hardware, including aircraft, ships, missiles, combat vehicles, ammunition, weapons, electronic sensors and communications equipment, and other procurement items.

The President's fiscal year 2010 budget requests a total of $105,213,426,000 for procurement appropriations.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

The Committee recommends procurement appropriations totaling $108,016,143,000 for fiscal year 2010. This is $2,802,717,000 above the budget estimate.

Committee recommended procurement appropriations for fiscal year 2010 are summarized below:

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

Based on a careful review of the Department's budget request, the Committee has recommended funding adjustments, displayed in tables for each appropriation account.

The Committee supports the Department's efforts to modernize, grow the ground combat force element, sustain training and reset equipment for units returning from operations in Iraq and Afghanistan to maintain overall force readiness. The recommended procurement funding provides sufficient funds to meet these critical tasks.

The Committee directs that the funding increases outlined in these tables shall be provided only for the specific purposes indicated in the table.

35	AIRCREW INTEGRATED SYSTEMS	52,725	55,725	+ 3,000
	Air Warrior Ensemble Generation III			+ 3,000

Kiowa Warrior Life Support 2020.—The President's budget request includes $61,200,000 in research and development and $96,600,000 in procurement for Life Support 2020, which would modernize the Kiowa Warrior OH-58D helicopter with modern sensors, communications, and flight systems. The Committee fully supports the modernization of the Kiowa Warrior to increase safety, performance, and service life in light of the termination of the armed reconnaissance helicopter. However, the request for procurement includes items which would be placed on contract shortly after the beginning of testing and would not begin installation until the end of fiscal year 2012. The Committee therefore provides the requested amount for design, integration, test and qualification, and reduces the procurement of long lead items by $60,000,000.

Army Truck Programs.—The Committee is concerned about the absence of an overall truck acquisition strategy to guide the Army's plans and programs. It is not clear that Army has conducted the needed analyses for sound contracting plans or to reap potential savings. There have been competitions for the Family of Medium Tactical Vehicles contract in recent years while similar programs, such as the light and heavy tactical vehicle fleet have not been competed. Not later than 180 days after the passage of this act, the Secretary of Defense shall provide a report to the Committee detailing the Army's acquisition strategy for future truck procurement.

Networked Communications Capabilities.—The Committee continues to support the overall objectives of the Joint Tactical Radio System [JTRS] program, but is concerned about the technical risk and cost of the program. While the JTRS family of radios and waveforms has made progress in development, the program has experienced delays and has yet to prove successful in field conditions. Delays in testing and fielding have left a gap in the robust networked communications capability required by the military services. In order to mitigate the future risk associated with the overall scale and scope of the JTRS program, the Committee encourages the Department to consider a low-risk approach to bridging the networked communications gap by leveraging and enhancing capabilities resident in legacy and commercially available radios and waveforms. Therefore, the Committee directs the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Networks and Information Integration to examine the cost effectiveness of such an approach and to submit a report to the congressional defense committees no later than March 15, 2010, with recommendations for closing the networked communications capability gap with legacy and commercially available radios and waveforms.

Weapons Programs.—The Committee is frustrated with the inadequate information provided to the Congress on a number of high-priority Navy weapons programs. The justification material provided with the President's budget request lacked required procurement documents for a number of programs and insufficient information was provided for deliveries after fiscal year 2010. In addition, several programs had significant changes to their program subsequent to the delivery of the President's budget and staff briefings, yet the Navy did not relay these alterations to the Committee. As a result, the Committee was working off outdated information in its deliberations over the appropriate level of funding for these programs. The Committee directs the Navy to greatly improve the quality of justification material provided with the fiscal year 2011 budget request and further directs the Navy to convey significant changes to programs to the Committee on a timely basis throughout the fiscal year.

DDG-51 Class Destroyer.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request included $1,912,267,000 for the construction of one DDG-51 destroyer and $328,996,000 in advance procurement funding for two ships in fiscal year 2011. The Committee fully supports the restart of the DDG-51 program. Therefore, in order to restart the DDG-51 program in the most efficient and cost effective way possible, the Committee recommends an additional $1,737,733,000 for the procurement of a second DDG-51 destroyer in fiscal year 2010. The Committee expects that the addition of a second ship in fiscal 2010 will allow the Navy to benefit from economies of scale and improve stability the Nation's shipbuilding industrial base.

Littoral Combat Ship [LCS].—The fiscal year 2010 budget request included $1,380,000,000 for the construction of three littoral combat ships. The Committee notes that the budget request of $460,000,000 per ship is insufficient to execute a procurement of three ships in fiscal year 2010. Therefore, in order to provide for a more executable program in fiscal year 2010, the Committee recommends $1,080,000,000 for the construction of two littoral combat ships at a cost $540,000,000 per ship. This is a reduction of $300,000,000 and one ship from the budget request.

While the Committee continues to support the LCS program and believes that the Navy is making progress, concerns remain with the cost and schedule performance as well as the future acquisition strategy for the program. The Committee is also becoming concerned with the LCS's ability to operate with the various mission modules and would encourage the Navy to demonstrate this capability earlier than the current plan of the third quarter of fiscal year 2011.

LHA Replacement.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request does not include any funding for the LHA 7. The Committee notes that $178,300,000 in advance procurement funding was appropriated for LHA 7 in fiscal year 2009. The Committee believes that it is critical to provide additional advance procurement funding in fiscal year 2010 to begin construction of LHA 7 in fiscal year 2011. Therefore, the Committee recommends an additional $170,000,000 in advance procurement funding to support a construction start of LHA 7 in fiscal year 2011.

Completion of Prior Year Shipbuilding Programs.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request included $454,586,000 in the Completion of Prior Year Shipbuilding Programs budget line. The Committee understands that $309,636,000 of this request is for the DDG 1000 program to address class-wide costs that are not specific to individual hulls but rather required to complete all remaining ships in construction. These costs are usually budgeted across all planned ships in construction and not in the cost to complete budget line. Therefore, the Committee recommends transfer of $309,636,000 to the DDG 1000 new construction budget line. Fiscal year 2011 and beyond requirements should be addressed as program shutdown line items in future budget requests.

Common Hull Form.—The Committee remains concerned about the Navy’s ability to maintain an adequate fleet and deliver on its shipbuilding program, and build ships on time and on budget. The Chief of Naval Operations pointed out in testimony before the Committee, common hull forms and repeat build of ships that permit longer production runs will reduce construction costs. The Committee supports efforts that control ship costs and help maintain production schedules.

The Committee understands there has been discussion within the Department of the Navy about using the LPD–17 hull as a common hull option for the LCC(R) joint command ship and the LSD(X) dock landing ship replacement programs. The amphibious LPD–17 class ship is a hull form that is at a mature stage of production and should be strongly considered for this commonality approach. Therefore, the Committee directs the Secretary of the Navy to submit a report to the congressional defense committees no later than March 15, 2010, that describes the benefits of using the LPD hull form as a replacement for these ship classes to include estimated cost savings of procuring these ships under a multi-year procurement authority.

C-130 Avionics Modernization Program [AMP].—The C-130 AMP program will provide a common, state-of-the-art avionics suite on the aging C-130 tactical airlifters to improve safety of flight, enable flying in the global airspace, and save significant life-cycle sustainment costs. Development and flight testing was just completed in July with the test aircraft meeting or exceeding their performance metrics in every category. The Committee commends the Department of Defense for recently approving the Acquisition Decision Memorandum authorizing the program to proceed to a Milestone C review. Given the AMP's performance and progress to date, the Committee believes the Air Force should move forward expeditiously to provide this needed capability to Active, Guard, and Reserve Air Force pilots. The Committee encourages the Air Force to schedule and complete Milestone C at the earliest possible date.

Minuteman III Solid Rocket Motor Warm Line Program.—The Committee has been informed by the Air Force that the budget request provides sufficient funding to continue the Minuteman III Solid Rocket Motor Warm Line Program that was initiated in fiscal year 2009. The Committee is aware of estimates which indicate that maintaining a warm line status would require the procurement of six solid rocket motors per fiscal year. The Committee directs the Air Force to take all necessary actions to maintain the required manning, skills and equipment to support the solid rocket motor warm line program they committed to and the industrial base in its effort to sustain the Minuteman III.

Combat Mission Requirements.—The Committee recommends $20,000,000 for Special Operations Command Combat Mission Requirements. The Committee directs Special Operations Command to submit quarterly reports to the congressional defense committees on the use of these funds.

NATIONAL GUARD AND RESERVE EQUIPMENT

Appropriations, 2009	$750,000,000
Budget estimate, 2010
House allowance
Committee recommendation	1,500,000,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $1,500,000,000. This is $1,500,000,000 above the budget estimate.

The appropriation includes direction for each Reserve and National Guard component commander to submit to the congressional defense committees a detailed assessment of that component's modernization priorities, not later than 30 days after enactment of this act.

TITLE IV

RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, TEST AND EVALUATION

Funds appropriated under this title provide the resources required to conduct a program of research, development, test and evaluation, including research in basic science, applied research, advanced technology development, demonstration and validation, engineering and manufacturing development, and operational systems development.

The President's fiscal year 2010 budget requests a total of $78,634,289,000 for research, development, test and evaluation appropriations.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

The Committee recommends research, development, test and evaluation appropriations totaling $78,450,388,000 for fiscal year 2010. This is $183,901,000 below the budget estimate.

Committee recommended research, development, test and evaluation appropriations for fiscal year 2010 are summarized below:

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee has displayed recommended adjustments in tables presented under each appropriation account.

These adjustments reflect the following Committee actions: elimination of funds requested for programs which are lower priority, duplicative, or not supported by firm requirements in out-year development or procurement appropriations; deletion of excess funds based on program delays or slow execution; addition of funds to reflect congressional priorities and to rectify shortfalls in the budget estimate; and implementation of recommendations in S. 1390, the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 as passed by the Senate.

The Committee directs that the funding increases outlined in these tables shall be provided only for the specific purposes indicated in the table.

RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, TEST AND EVALUATION OVERVIEW

Corrosion Prevention and Control.—The effects of corrosion on weapon systems and infrastructure has been estimated to cost the Department of Defense more than $22,000,000,000 annually. Corrosion reduces mission readiness by limiting asset availability and also impacts safety. The Committee believes the Department needs to invest more in corrosion prevention and mitigation projects in order to better control future year maintenance costs of weapon systems and infrastructure. Corrosion prevention projects include development of new coating and materials, studies, and training. The Department of Defense Corrosion Prevention and Control Program has shown a return on investment in excess of 55:1 for projects funded in prior years. The Committee believes the demonstrated success of these efforts warrant full funding of the program's stated requirement of $27,700,000 for fiscal year 2010, which is more than twice the budget request of $13,100,000. The Government Accountability Office estimates that fully funding the corrosion prevention program could potentially result in a cost avoidance of almost $1,000,000,000. Therefore, the Committee recommends $14,600,000 above the budget request to fully fund the fiscal year 2010 Corrosion Prevention and Control program stated requirement and urges the Department to fully fund the requirement in future budget requests.

The Committee is also concerned that the stated requirement for the Corrosion Prevention and Control Program is artificially constrained by the Department primarily because of budgetary concerns and does not reflect the total number of ready to implement corrosion control projects identified by the Services. In 2004, the Government Accountability Office reported that an internal Department of Defense estimate identified almost $1,900,000,000 in corrosion prevention projects that could be executed between 2004 and 2009. The wide disparity between the Department's stated requirement of $27,700,000 in fiscal year 2010 and an average of over $300,000,000 annualized requirements identified in the 2004 estimate raises questions about the Department's methodology for developing the Corrosion Prevention and Control Program requirement. Therefore, the Committee directs the Government Accountability Office to provide—within 60 days after submission of the Department of Defense budget for fiscal year 2011—information on differences between the Department and Service-reported requirements for corrosion control and prevention projects for fiscal year 2011 and later submit a report on selected corrosion control projects identified by the Department and the Military Services. This review should identify projects at field level, headquarters level and Department-Wide activities that can be executed in the coming fiscal years and would contribute to lowering the overall annual cost of corrosion. The review should also identify the Services' methodology and process for forwarding candidate projects for funding consideration and determine why the Services' entire estimated requirements are not reflected in the overall Department of Defense requirement.

Unmanned Aerial Vehicle [UAV]-based Signals Intelligence [SIGINT] Payloads.—The Committee is aware that the Army and Air Force have parallel development programs underway to fulfill similar requirements for signals intelligence payloads capable of flying on small unmanned aerial vehicles, but have thus far proceeded with separate acquisition strategies. In order to ensure the Department of Defense is fulfilling operational requirements for this capability and that continued development provides the best value for the warfighter and the taxpayer, the Committee directs the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics to submit a report to the congressional defense committees no later than March 15, 2010, that details the preferred acquisition strategy for UAV-based signals intelligence capabilities across the military services.

Engineer Surfaces for Weapons Systems Life Extension—Transfer of U.S. Government Property to the University of North Dakota.—The Committee understands that the program was initiated in 2005 with the intent that the equipment located at and in use by the University of North Dakota under this program would be conveyed to the university upon completion of the contract. Therefore, the Committee encourages that upon completion and termination of the contracts identified below, the appropriate Department of Defense official transfer without consideration to the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota, all rights, title, and interests of the United States in the property consisting of all U.S. Government property procured for the United States Army Engineered Surfaces for Weapons System Life Extension Program under the following contracts: FA4600-06-D-0003, SPO7000-97-D-4001, and AMPTIAC-05-0001.

	Hi-Tech Eyes for the Battlefield			+ 2,000
	Open Source Intelligence for Force Protection and Intelligence Analysis			+ 1,000
4	University and Industry Research Centers	96,144	103,144	+ 7,000
	H50/J22 Network Science—fiscal year 2009 execution delays and excessive growth			- 6,000
	ARL-ONAMI Center for Nanoarchitectures for Enhanced Performance			+ 1,000
	Army Material Degradation			+ 800
	MEMS Antenna for Wireless Communications Supporting UAVs in the Battlefield			+ 3,000
	Nanoscale Bio-Sensors			+ 3,000
	Nanotubes Optimized for Lightweight Exceptional Strength (NOLES)			+ 4,000
	Visualization for Training and Simulation in Urban Terrains at Fort Knox			+ 1,200
5	Materials Technology	27,206	81,806	+ 54,600
	Affordable Light-Weight Metal Matrix Composite (MMC) Armor			+ 2,500
	Ballistic Armor Research			+ 4,000
	Composite Applied Research and Technology for Tactical Vehicle Survivability			+ 4,000
	Development, Optimization, and Transfer of a Reliable Testing Technology for Materials Designed to Protect War-fighters Against Toxic Chemical Warfare Agents			+ 600
	Distributed, Networked Unmanned Ground Systems for Enhanced Reconnaissance, Surveillance and Target Acquisition/Surveillance and Reconnaissance			+ 4,000
	Lattice Block Structures for AM2 Matting Replacement			+ 2,000
	Materials Technology for LED Lighting Applications ..			+ 3,000
	Moldable Fabric Armor			+ 2,000
	Modeling and Testing of Next Generation Body Armor			+ 2,500
	Multi-Utility Materials for Army Future Combat Systems			+ 9,000
	Nanoelectronic Memory, Sensor, and Energy Devices			+ 7,000
	Nanomanufacturing of Multifunctional Sensors			+ 4,000
	Next Generation High-Strength Glass Fibers for Ballistic Armor Applications			+ 2,000
	Next Generation Lightweight Drive System for Army Weapons Systems			+ 2,000
	Renewable Jet Fuel from Lignocellulosic Feedstocks ..			+ 3,000
	Smart Integrated Systems: Materials, Manufacturing Methods, and Structures			+ 1,000

Alternative Energy Advanced Technology Development/Demonstration.—The Committee includes $25,000,000 in program element 0603125A in support of deployable force protection initiatives, to include efforts to develop and deploy capabilities that would prevent forward operating bases from being cut off from reliable power sources.

Long Endurance Multi-INT Vehicle [LEMV].—The fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $80,000,000 to initiate the development of a Long Endurance Multi-INT Vehicle [LEMV]. This vehicle is intended to be a hybrid airship capable of remaining on station for 3 weeks at a time and carrying a payload of 2,500 pounds. The Committee understands that the full remaining requirement of $55,000,000 to complete integration, testing and fielding of one airship will be included in the fiscal year 2011 base budget request. The LEMV is being pursued in response to continued theater demands for persistent intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance [ISR] capabilities. However, the Committee notes that there is no validated requirement specifically for the LEMV and its key performance parameters, nor has an Analysis of Alternatives been conducted to determine whether this proposed technology solution is best suited to address operational needs. Additionally, many of the technologies required for this advanced capability have not been tested in a relevant environment. Finally, the Army's acquisition strategy of awarding a single development contract to one contractor eschews the principle of competitive prototyping which is a key component for reining in the Department's pervasive cost, schedule and performance challenges on many high profile acquisition programs. Given the criticality of ISR capabilities in theater, the Committee fully funds the budget request, but notes that the Army's strategy is high-risk and encourages the Army to review its technical approach and acquisition strategy.

Future Combat System.—Following the Department of Defense April 6, 2009 announcement to terminate the Future Combat System [FCS] Manned Ground Vehicle program, the Department of Defense on June 23, 2009 canceled FCS and directed in its place the establishment of an Army modernization program consisting of four major defense acquisition programs [MDAPs]. This restructure, to include an impact analysis of complementary programs such as the Joint Tactical Radio System [JTRS]; Warfighter Information Network—Tactical [WIN-T]; and Mid-Range Munitions [MRM], as well as of the necessary adjustments to the existing contract, will not be complete until the end of this fiscal year, at the earliest. As such, the Army has been unable to articulate to the Committee how the fiscal year 2010 budget request for FCS would be executed in support of the new MDAPs. Based on the anticipated contract restructure and inevitable programmatic and schedule adjustments, the Committee recommends adjustments to the fiscal year 2010 request.

Universal Ground Control Station.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $28,500,000 for the development of a Universal Ground Control Station [GCS] that will control Army unmanned aerial systems only. The Committee notes that the Army's strategy is inconsistent with Department-wide guidance to seek truly joint capabilities and to adopt common and open GCS architectures. Therefore, the Committee reduces the request to allow for the synchronization of Army efforts with the development and implementation of an enterprise-wide investment plan for GCS. Funds for the development of GCS open architectures are provided elsewhere in this bill, as requested by the Department of Defense.

Aerial Common Sensor [ACS].—The fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $210,035,000 for the development of the aerial common sensor [ACS]. The Committee notes that despite several program delays, a significant adjustment to the originally proposed hardware solution and a modification to the initial acquisition strategy, an ACS requirement has not been validated. The Committee further notes that the fiscal year 2010 budget request includes funds to integrate multiple intelligence capabilities onto medium altitude aircraft which will provide the Army with an enhanced medium altitude reconnaissance and surveillance capability. Therefore, the Committee provides no funds for ACS.

Stryker Product Improvement Program [S-PIP].—The Committee notes that the Stryker Product Improvement Program [S-PIP] continues to be delayed. To ensure appropriate oversight, the Committee directs the Army to establish two distinct projects under program element 0603653A for Stryker PIP and Mobile Gun System.

Armed Scout Helicopter.—The Committee is aware that the Department of the Army is analyzing the requirements and future program options for an armed scout helicopter [ASH]. Given the age of the Vietnam-era OH-58 Kiowa Warrior that a new ASH is being designed to replace, the Committee supports moving forward with a replacement program. The Committee notes, however, that the last two Army efforts to replace the Kiowa Warrior fleet, the RAH-66 Comanche and the ARH-70A Armed Reconnaissance Helicopter programs, resulted in program terminations due to requirements growth, cost overruns and schedule delays after significant taxpayer investment. Therefore, the Committee is concerned that the Army will attempt yet another new costly development program and encourages the Department of Defense to consider modifying an existing and in-service aircraft to meet ASH mission requirements. In order to mitigate future program risk, the Committee also encourages the Army to consider risk reduction efforts on existing and in-service rotorcraft during fiscal year 2010 to prepare for a future ASH competition.

Advanced Tactical Data Links.—The budget request includes $18,700,000 for development of Advanced Tactical Data Links, including Joint Tactical Information Distribution System Increment III. Increment III is intended to address mandates by the National Security Agency, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Federal Aviation Administration to implement cryptographic modernization and frequency remapping. The Committee is concerned that the requested program does not address the question of whether Increment III will include enhanced throughput capability upgrades. Adding an enhanced throughput requirement after the program is initiated in fiscal year 2010 would significantly increase the cost and complexity of the program, which is required to meet critical NSA, JCS, and FAA directives. The Committee is reluctant to initiate the Increment III upgrade program without a clear understanding of the program's requirements and acquisition strategy, and therefore recommends a reduction of $10,000,000.

Sea-based Strategic Deterrent [SBSD].—The budget request includes $387,517,000 to initiate technology demonstration and design efforts for the SBSB, a successor to the Ohio class ballistic missile submarines which will begin to retire in 2027. The program is being initiated to coincide with the United Kingdom's program to replace its Vanguard-class submarines, creating efficiencies and cost savings in the design of a common missile compartment.

Both the forthcoming Nuclear Posture Review and an analysis of alternatives are expected to inform key decisions about the specifications and performance of the Ohio class replacement. Although this submarine will remain in service for several decades, overly ambitious requirements will drive increased costs, further compounding challenges in future shipbuilding budgets. The Committee urges the Navy to continue to make cost a critical factor in design of the Ohio class replacement, and to continue to seek efficiencies by leveraging existing technology, cooperative international programs, and best practices of the U.S. industrial base.

High-integrity Global Positioning System [iGPS].—The Committee strongly supports the iGPS program since it continues to demonstrate better than anticipated performance in jammed environments. In July 2009, the Department of Defense validated in a field experiment that iGPS operates effectively in a severely jammed GPS environment by demonstrating acquisition and positioning from a cold start under more than 30 decibel jamming conditions. This capability is urgently requested by U.S. Special Operations Command [USSOCOM], and the funds in the fiscal year 2010 request will provide hand-held prototypes for use by USSOCOM forces. Upon successful demonstration of the prototype, the warfighters will have a capability to operate in a strongly jammed environment at least 10 years earlier than currently planned.

Mobile User Objective System [MUOS].—The Navy established a National Review Team [NRT] to assess the technical, schedule, and cost status of the MUOS satellites. The NRT reported its recommendations in August and found that MUOS is a sound technical program with an inadequate schedule and budget. The program will be rebaselined this fall, which will require additional funding in the out years to complete.

The first MUOS satellite is at least 1 year late, which increases the risk that the Navy will have a gap in Ultra High Frequency [UHF] service. Within 90 days of enactment of this act, the Committee directs the Navy to provide the defense oversight committees a mitigation strategy that would alleviate a break in UHF service. This strategy should look at all options, including maintaining the legacy systems longer, using commercially hosted payloads, and putting a UHF payload on Tactical Satellite-4 [TACSAT-4]. In addition, the Committee directs that $150,000,000 of the funding in Weapons Procurement, Navy for the second MUOS satellite launch vehicle be fenced until the defense oversight committees receive the rebaselined acquisition strategy and the mitigation plan. If additional funding is required to support the mitigation plan, the Committee will look favorably on a reprogramming to support the strategy.

Maui Space Surveillance System [MSSS].—The Committee recommends an increase of $20,000,000 over the President's budget request for sustainment, investment in new technologies and initiatives, and research and development activities at MSSS. The Committee is concerned that the Air Force will apply taxes to MSSS programs at excessive rates for lab overhead, and directs the Air Force to base its overhead charges only on the amount requested. None of the increases provided in this program element or other program elements that conduct research activities at the site shall be subject to Air Force taxes or withholds. Furthermore, research funds should be allocated by Air Force officials on-site to local programs that offer the greatest potential return and merit.

High Accuracy Network Determination System-Intelligent Optical Network [HANDS-ION] Joint Capability Technology Demonstration [JCTD].—The Committee recommends an increase of $5,500,000 for the HANDS-ION program. This project addresses current shortfalls in space situational awareness and has been reviewed and recommended by the Department of Defense as a JCTD program.

Missile Warning.—The Committee remains concerned over the development challenges that the Space-based Infra-Red System [SBIRS] Geosynchronous Earth Orbit [GEO] satellites continue to encounter. The program is more than 8 years behind schedule and at least $7,500,000,000 over its original cost estimate. In June, the Committee was informed that the program is facing another potential schedule delay and cost increase associated with a number of parts quality issues. The Air Force has not yet determined the impact to cost and schedule of these most recent findings. Due to chronic problems and the importance of missile warning for national security, the Committee supports the Third Generation Infra-Red Surveillance program in order to ensure that development funding is being invested in missile warning capabilities.

RAND Project Air Force.—The Committee recognizes the value of the research and analysis produced by RAND's Project Air Force for the senior leadership of the Air Force. The core program of Project Air Force must be effectively and efficiently prioritized and managed. The Committee is concerned that funding for the program is insufficient and encourages the Air Force in its fiscal year 2011 budget request to provide a stable level of effort at not less than 80 percent of the Project Air Force ceiling.

F-22.—The Committee includes a general provision that would allow the Department of Defense to develop an export version of the F-22 aircraft. The Committee urges the Air Force to start this effort within the funds appropriated in Research, Development, Test and Evaluation, Air Force for the F-22 aircraft.

Joint Air-to-Surface Standoff Missile [JASSM].—The Committee is concerned over the chronic cost growth and poor test performance in the JASSM program. Its successor program, JASSM-Extended Range [ER], is currently performing better than the baseline program and provides more capability to the warfighter. Therefore, the Committee believes that the Air Force should focus its efforts on the JASSM-ER version of the missile.

The Committee remains concerned, however, over the cost growth of the program and the overall unit cost of the JASSM-ER missile and believes that in order to make the JASSM-ER program affordable, costs need to remain stable. The Committee directs the Government Accountability Office to provide the congressional defense oversight committees with a report on the JASSM and JASSM-ER programs to include reliability, unit cost, and production performance by April 16, 2010.

Joint Surveillance-Target Attack Radar System [JSTARS] Re-engineing.—The Committee understands that the Air Force Fleet Viability Board recently assessed the long-term viability of the JSTARS aircraft. The report recommends that if JSTARS is needed to support the large sensor and associated communications for airborne battle management, command, control, intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance for at least 25 more years, the Air Force must modernize the fleet. The modernization effort that they recommend includes upgraded avionics and cockpit displays, re-engineing, and defensive suites to enhance survivability. The cost is high, exceeding $5,500,000,000 for the 17 aircraft in the fleet. The Committee is concerned about the significant cost of this modernization effort and whether the Air Force is committed to the program.

Since the Air Force has not determined how to proceed with the program, the Air Force informed the Committee that no funding was required in Aircraft Procurement, Air Force [APAF] for the re-engineing program in fiscal year 2010. The Committee has provided an additional $35,000,000 for the JSTARS re-engineing system design and development [SDD] program in order to ensure that funding is available if the Department of Defense decides it will proceed with re-engineing the aircraft. In addition, the budget request contains $16,000,000 and the Air Force will carry over $13,000,000 in fiscal year 2009 funds making a total of $64,000,000 available in fiscal year 2010 for the SDD work. The Committee directs, however, that none of these funds be obligated or expended until the congressional defense oversight committees are provided a report from the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics that provides an affordable and executable plan for re-engineing the JSTARS fleet.

Joint Precision Approach and Landing System [JPALS] Increment 2-Land Based.—The Committee recognizes the importance of JPALS in providing seamless civil-military interoperability when operating from land-based sites. The Secretary of Defense is urged to establish requirements for JPALS Increment 2 that reflect to the maximum extent possible the importance of interoperability by en-asuring equivalent levels of flight safety and performance in precision landings by military versions of civil transport aircraft and by the Civil Reserve Air Fleet at both military and civilian airfields.

Implementation of Weapon Systems Acquisition System Reform.—On May 22, 2009, the Weapon Systems Acquisition Reform Act of 2009 [WSARA] became Public Law 111–23. The Committee understands that certain Department of Defense workload requirements, such as systems engineering and developmental test and evaluation, may increase as a result of this act. As the Department develops a strategy to implement the WSARA, the Committee encourages the Department to grow and retain the necessary expertise in-house, instead of outsourcing these functions.

Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency [DARPA].—The fiscal year 2010 budget request for DARPA is $3,248,000,000. The Committee notes that from fiscal year 2006 to 2008, DARPA executed an average program of roughly $2,666,000,000. Therefore, the Committee believes that such a significant funding increase to DARPA's program is fiscally imprudent and has recommended adjustments as detailed in the accompanying table.

DARPA New Start Programs.—DARPA's fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $135,170,000 for new start programs. The Committee understands that the new Director, DARPA did not have an opportunity to adjust DARPA's fiscal year 2010 budget submission to reflect the new administration's priorities. Therefore, the Committee denies all funding for the requested new start programs. Instead, the Committee has provided funds in program elements 0602702E, 0602716E, and 0603766E for new starts to be selected by the Director, DARPA in fiscal year 2010. The Committee directs that none of these funds may be obligated until the Director, DARPA provides to the congressional defense committees details on the programs to be initiated, to include descriptions, program objectives, the expected duration of the DARPA effort and associated outyear funding requirements and Service transition partners. The Committee expects DARPA to use established budgeting procedures for new starts in its fiscal year 2011 budget submission.

Transition of DARPA Projects.—The Committee remains concerned by the lack of clear and executable plans for many DARPA projects, to include the lack of defined transition capabilities and a resourced transition strategy. In fiscal year 2009, the congressional defense committees were presented with several reprogramming requests because the necessary transition funding had not been budgeted. The Committee encourages DARPA to improve mechanisms to transition its technologies.

Notification of Project Adjustments in the Year of Execution.—DARPA's budget is allocated among several program elements, many of which are in excess of $200,000,000 and contain dozens of small projects. Established reprogramming procedures provide DARPA with significant flexibility to adjust funding within lines in the year of execution. The Committee directs DARPA to provide, with the fiscal year 2011 budget submission, a detailed listing by program element and project of funding adjustments in the year of execution.

DARPA Justification Materials.—The Committee notes the improvement in the budget materials supporting DARPA's unclassified programs. However, the budget information provided in support of classified programs is inadequate. The Committee looks forward to working with the Director, DARPA to ensure the appro-appropriate and necessary budgetary information is provided in support of DARPA's fiscal year 2011 budget submission.

National Defense Education Program [NDEP].—The budget request includes $89,900,000 for the National Defense Education Program, which is intended to increase the Department's outreach to practitioners in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics [STEM]. The Committee notes that the fiscal year 2010 request is an increase of over 100 percent from fiscal year 2008 and that the fiscal year 2009 program faced execution challenges. Additionally, the Department is currently undertaking a strategic review of its various STEM programs to ensure maximum coordination. The Committee believes that increasing the funds prior to completing the strategic review is premature and recommends the same funding as in fiscal year 2009.

Execution Year New Starts.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $77,300,000 under the Joint Capability Technology Demonstration [JCTD] program, and an additional $93,600,000 under the Quick Reaction Special Projects [QRSP] program for new start programs that will be selected in the execution year. These programs are designed to address technology gaps that are not being funded by the Services and rapidly field technologies to the warfighter. However, the Committee notes the poor transition success of many initiatives funded with these funds, in part due to the absence of Service participation in these programs. The Committee further notes that established reprogramming procedures have allowed for reprogramming requests for unfunded warfighter requirements in excess of $1,500,000,000 in fiscal year 2009. While concern over the lack of institutional support for the warfighter remains, the Committee believes that established reprogramming authorities are the appropriate manner to fund urgent, unforeseen national security requirements.

Alternative Energy Study.—The Committee includes $1,400,000 for a pilot study on the use of Department of Defense land for renewable energy production. The study to analyze the potential impacts of a program to develop large-scale renewable electricity generation projects shall be completed not later than one year after enactment of this act.

Chemical and Biological Defense Program.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request includes $1,201,803,000 in research and development funding for the Chemical and Biological Defense Program [CBDP]. This is an increase of $137,000,000 over the amount programmed for fiscal year 2010 in last year's budget. The Committee understands that roughly half of that growth, $61,000,000, is attributed to the Non Traditional Agents [NTA] Initiative, and fully supports that increase. However, the Committee notes that the remaining growth is unjustified or for follow-on efforts to existing projects whose outyear funding requirements are unknown. The Committee denies this unjustified growth and directs that none of the reductions may be levied against the NTA Initiative.

Defense Integrated Military Human Resources System [DIMHRS].—DIMHRS is designed to provide an integrated, multi-component personnel and pay system to the Services. In August 2009, the Department asked the Committee to transfer fiscal year 2010 funds requested for DIMHRS under the Business Transformation Agency to the Services for execution in accordance with a recently completed program restructure that transitions this capability to the Services. The Committee has accommodated this request as detailed in the tables accompanying this report.

Net-Enabled Command Capability [NECC]/Global Command and Control System [GCCS].—The Net-Enabled Command Capability [NECC] is the Department's next generation command and control system. However, the program has suffered from significant program delays and lack of coordination with the Services. The Committee understands that the Department is currently re-evaluating its investment in NECC. As such, the Committee denies funds for further development of NECC and instead redirects funding towards the GCCS to enhance the Department's existing command control capability.

Missile Defense Agency.—The Committee has recommended several changes in the fiscal year 2010 request for the Missile Defense Agency [MDA] in order to ensure that MDA remains focused on the near-term missile defense programs, in particular, Aegis Ballistic Missile Defense [BMD], Theater High Area Altitude Defense [THAAD] and the accompanying TPY-2 radars, and the Ground-based Midcourse Defense [GMD] programs. The Committee believes that these near-term programs should not be reduced to fund higher risk development projects. While the Committee supports the new technology development focus on early intercept, land-based SM-3, and the follow-on STSS satellite system, it is concerned that these new programs are technically challenging and could consume a significant portion of the missile defense budget in future years.

In order to ensure that MDA is fully funded to support Aegis BMD, THAAD and the accompanying TPY-2 radars, and GMD, the Committee has made several adjustments that are highlighted in the paragraphs below.

Aegis Ballistic Missile Defense.—Despite pronouncements from Administration officials when the fiscal year 2010 budget was submitted that the Aegis program was increasing production of Standard Missile-3 [SM-3] in order to get more capability to the warfighter sooner, the budget request actually decreased SM-3 production from fiscal year 2009 to fiscal year 2010. The Committee has added $57,600,000 in Procurement, Defense-Wide to procure an additional six SM-3 Block 1A missiles in order to help boost the production line and get much needed capability to the warfighter sooner than the current program profile.

In addition, the Committee has added $35,000,000 in Research, Development, Test and Evaluation, Defense-Wide for additional development of SM-3. Each year funding requested for the SM-3 variants is reduced to support other shortfalls in the program or in the Agency. The funding recommended should help alleviate that burden and ensure that the development programs are not delayed.

TPY-2 Radars.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request contains no procurement funding for the TPY-2 radars that accompany the THAAD batteries. The Committee has provided an additional $41,000,000 in Procurement, Defense-Wide to begin long-lead procurement of the next TPY-2 radar to ensure that the radars are available when the THAAD batteries become available to the warfighters. The Committee was informed that funding for TPY-2 radars would resume in fiscal year 2011, and the Committee fully expects MDA to honor this commitment.

Ground-based Missile Defense.—The Committee supports the administration's proposal to reduce the number of emplaced ground-based interceptors [GBIs] to a total of 30. However, several changes have occurred since the submission of the fiscal year 2010 budget request for GMD specifically due to the late approval of the Integrated Master Test Plan [IMTP]. In order to execute the IMTP, the Agency will require seven additional GBIs above those that are in the planned program. In order to ensure that the GBI production line and its sub-vendors do not shut down next year, the Committee has provided an additional $50,000,000 to maintain production capacity for these additional missiles. Furthermore, the Committee is concerned that in order to sustain the GBI's out to 2030, MDA has underestimated the amount of funding required for development and parts obsolescence to maintain the viability of the interceptors. The Committee encourages MDA to remedy this problem in future year budget requests.

Ballistic Missile Defense Test and Targets.—The Committee has reduced $151,000,000 from the request for tests that are not required in fiscal year 2010. In addition, the Committee has reduced $37,000,000 from the request to support the development of two targets that are being built solely to support the two Space Tracking and Surveillance System [STSS] demonstration satellites. The STSS demonstration satellites were built with payloads that would demonstrate capabilities required under the former Space-based Infrared-Low [SBIRS-Low] program. The new constellation that MDA is considering for space-based detection and tracking is very different from the original SBIRS-Low concept and the STSS demonstration satellites. The Committee believes that while these tests could provide useful data to MDA, the investment could be better spent on other near-term programs. There is sufficient funding in the request to demonstrate the STSS capability for which they were built and provide valuable data to MDA by using the multiple targets of opportunity presented by MDA and other Department of Defense missile launches, such as Air Force Glory Trips. The Committee recognizes, however, that a substantial portion of these targets have already been built and encourages MDA to use them in other missile defense tests.

Pacific Region Ballistic Missile Threat.—Recent threats by the North Koreans to launch a missile at the United States, namely the Hawaiian islands, demonstrates that there is an escalating ballistic missile threat in the Pacific region that should be addressed with a more enduring missile defense presence and capability. While MDA has robust testing capacity in the Pacific, operational assets are limited and not well integrated. Therefore, the Committee encourages MDA, in coordination with the U.S. Pacific Command, to explore options for a more integrated missile defense capability at the Pacific Missile Range Facility to defend the State of Hawaii against a ballistic missile attack.

Airborne Laser.—The Committee understands that the Missile Defense Agency [MDA] realigned funding for the Airborne Laser [ABL] program in the fiscal year 2010 President's budget request.

The Committee is also aware that MDA has an upcoming test that could demonstrate the potential lethal capabilities of the system. In the event of a successful demonstration of the Airborne Laser during this test, the Committee believes that MDA should explore future funding for the program.

OPERATIONAL TEST AND EVALUATION, DEFENSE

Appropriations, 2009	$188,772,000
Budget estimate, 2010	190,770,000
House allowance	190,770,000

TITLE V
 REVOLVING AND MANAGEMENT FUNDS

DEFENSE WORKING CAPITAL FUNDS

Appropriations, 2009	$1,489,234,000
Budget estimate, 2010	1,455,004,000
House allowance	1,455,004,000
Committee recommendation	1,455,004,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $1,455,004,000. This is equal to the budget estimate.

Excess Supply and Repair Parts Inventory.—The Committee is concerned about recent Government Accountability Office [GAO] reports on each of the Service’s spare parts inventory levels. The GAO data indicated that the Army, Navy, and Air Force had significantly more inventory than was needed to support current requirements. Although no reductions to the operation and maintenance accounts are recommended based on excess spare parts inventory, the Committee urges the Department to review the unit cost ratio in the Supply Management area of each of the Working Capital Funds. The Committee believes the Army in particular can reduce inventory levels effectively with a possible reduction to the unit cost ratio.

NATIONAL DEFENSE SEALIFT FUND

Appropriations, 2009	$1,666,572,000
Budget estimate, 2010	1,642,758,000
House allowance	1,692,758,000
Committee recommendation	1,242,758,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $1,242,758,000. This is $400,000,000 below the budget estimate.

T-AKE.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request included $940,100,000 within the National Defense Sealift Fund [NDSF] for the construction of two T-AKE dry cargo/ammunition ships. The Committee supports the recommendation of the Senate Armed Services Committee to reduce the request by $400,000,000 to delay exercising the option for the second of the two ships until after the Department completes the QDR reviews of the Maritime Prepositioning Force (Future) concept.

TITLE VI
OTHER DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS
DEFENSE HEALTH PROGRAM

Appropriations, 2009	$25,825,832,000
Budget estimate, 2010	27,903,163,000
House allowance	29,891,109,000
Committee recommendation	28,311,113,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $28,311,113,000. This is $407,950,000 above the budget estimate.

Defense Health Program Reprogramming Procedures.—The Committee remains concerned regarding the transfer of funds from Direct (or In-house) Care to pay for contractor-provided medical care. To limit such transfers and continue oversight within the Defense Health Program operation and maintenance account, the Committee includes bill language which caps the funds available for Private Sector Care under the TRICARE program subject to prior approval reprogramming procedures. The bill language and accompanying report language included by the Committee should not be interpreted by the Department as limiting the amount of funds that may be transferred to the Direct Care System from other budget activities within the Defense Health Program. In addition, the Committee believes that the Services are not properly budgeting for actual execution levels among the budget activity groups and therefore continues to designate the funding for the Direct Care System as a special interest item. Any transfer of funds from the Direct (or In-house) Care budget activity into the Private Sector Care budget activity or any other budget activity will require the Department of Defense to follow prior approval reprogramming procedures.

Carryover.—For fiscal year 2010, the Committee is recommending 1 percent carryover authority for the Defense Health Program. The Committee directs the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Health Affairs) to submit a detailed spending plan for any fiscal year 2009 designated carryover funds to the congressional defense committees by November 1, 2009. In addition, the Department shall, not fewer than 15 days prior to executing the carryover funds, notify the congressional defense committees in writing of the details of any such obligation.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED ADJUSTMENTS

The following table details the adjustments recommended by the Committee:

TOTAL, DEFENSE HEALTH PROGRAM	27,903,163	28,311,113	+ 407,950

Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program.—The Committee has provided $50,000,000 for a Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program. The Committee directs the Secretary of Defense, in conjunction with the Service Surgeons General, to select medical research projects of clear scientific merit and direct relevance to military health. Research areas considered under this funding are restricted to: Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, Autism, Blood Cancer, Chronic Migraine and Post-traumatic headache, Drug Abuse, Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, Epilepsy, Fragile X Syndrome, Gulf War Illness, Inflammatory Bowel Disease, Interstitial Cystitis, Kidney Cancer, Lupus, Melanoma, Mesothelioma, Multiple Sclerosis, Neuroblastoma, Neurofibromatosis, Orthopedic Extremity Trauma Research, Osteoporosis and related bone disease, Paget's Disease, Parkinson's, Pheochromocytoma, Polycystic Kidney Disease, Post-traumatic Osteoarthritis, Social Work Research, Tinnitus, and Tuberos Sclerosis Complex. The Committee emphasizes that the additional funding provided under the Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program shall be devoted only to the purposes listed above.

Medical Information Technology.—Over the past few years, criticism regarding the Department of Defense [DOD] and the Department of Veterans Affairs [VA] medical information technology has grown tenfold. Both Departments developed their current systems and infrastructure independent of one another, primarily using proprietary technology and hardware that is costly, not user-friendly, and technologically unsustainable. As such, both Departments have now chosen to modernize their systems and infrastructure to address many of those issues as well as addressing the issues surrounding interoperability between both Departments and the private sector. These systems must also address new requirements made evident by overseas operations including the ability to expand based on future technology requirements.

Unfortunately, it appears that both Departments are not sufficiently coordinating their efforts, and that past lessons learned and application of those lessons are not being used to developing an efficient and cost-effective means for data interoperability and information technology modernization. The Committee recognizes that each Department has unique system requirements; however, the Committee also believes that both Departments have common functions that should result in the development of common technology solutions and architecture. Areas that should be joint business practices include lab work, pharmacy orders, digital radiology transmittal, third-party collections, and patient appointment scheduling. The Committee is aware that both Departments are continuing to work on interoperability between their current systems and the improved transmittal of medical records from one system to another, but does not believe that the necessary efforts are being made to jointly develop the required future systems. Therefore, the Committee directs the Joint Executive Council [JEC] and the Health Executive Council [HEC] to report to the Committees on Appropriations no later than December 11, 2009 on a complete and thorough review of the technology requirements of each Department. The report shall detail each requirement, to include those that are deemed unique to each Department, and a justification of why it can or cannot be developed jointly, and identify the path forward to develop such joint technology. In addition, the JEC and the HEC are directed to coordinate this report with the Department of Health and Human Services as they seek to modernize the electronic health records throughout the private sector. The Committee believes that if done correctly and efficiently, the efforts of DOD and the VA can be used as an example of how to modernize medical information technology.

Military Medical Research.—The Committee was pleased that the President's budget request included a substantial increase for military medical research. The additional $372,000,000 will address the numerous unique military medical areas of concern. The Committee understands that the Department of Defense is finalizing the capability gaps these resources will target and urges the Department to ensure the appropriate level of resources are devoted to address the following areas of research identified by the three Services: traumatic brain injury; psychological health (including suicide prevention, substance abuse, and family health and well-being); musculoskeletal injury; regenerative medicine for extremity injuries, burns, and craniofacial injuries; blast-related injury; infectious diseases; pain management; sensory dysfunction; respiratory disease; enroute care research (including studies on compartment syndrome, timing of transport, patient safety during transport, pain management); early recognition, diagnosis, and treatment of emerging threats (e.g., pandemic response, weaponized nanoparticles, etc.); operational medicine (including clinical patient safety studies and clinical medicine enhancements); human performance; wound management throughout the continuum of care; and under-sea medicine, diving, and submarine medical research. The Committee recognizes that while the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs is the lead organization tasked with establishing the capability gaps, the Services all play a crucial role in developing the needs and executing the programs. In addition, there are various groups, institutions, and organizations that would like an opportunity to compete for these resources. Therefore, the Committee directs the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs to report to the congressional defense committees by November 6, 2009 with a complete list of these capability gaps; a timeline and process for distributing and/or competing the resources; and a detailed description of how Health Affairs has integrated the Services into the development and execution process.

Federal Procurement of Pharmaceuticals.—The Committee notes that the fiscal years 2008 and 2009 budgetary savings programmed by the Department of Defense and the Office of Management and Budget for manufacturer refunds for TRICARE retail pharmacy prescriptions under section 703 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2008 have not been realized. However, the Department of Defense and the Office of Management and Budget have assumed over $760,000,000 in savings for fiscal year 2010. The Committee is deeply concerned that they too will not be realized. Coupled with a private sector care shortfall, potential prospective payment shortfall, and medical information technology unfunded requirements, this will create extreme stress on an account that directly affects service members and their families. Therefore, the Committee directs the Secretary of Defense to report to the congressional defense committees within 90 days after the enactment of this act on the status of implementation of section 703, including an assessment of whether any additional legislation is needed to effectuate the purposes of section 703.

Department of Defense/Veterans' Affairs Joint Credentialing.—Recognizing that dual credentialing of health care providers is becoming more common as the number of collaborative projects between the Department of Defense and the Department of Veterans Affairs increases, the Committee recommends that the DOD and VA review their credentialing procedures and work to develop options to streamline the process and reduce duplication of effort. The Committee encourages the Departments to establish shared credentialing agreements at existing Joint DOD/VA Ventures and Joint DOD/VA Market Areas.

Incentive Specialty Pay.—The Committee is pleased that the Incentive Specialty Pay program for nurses has had a positive impact on retention of nurses in critical nursing fields; however, the Committee is concerned that there may be an imbalance in the implementation of the incentive pay across the Services. The Committee encourages the Services to address inequities in approving bonuses across the three service branches, with an emphasis on addressing the requirement of nurses to work in a full-time clinical capacity in their specialty compared to the Medical Corps non-requirement of such clinical activity.

Nurse Practitioner Education.—The Committee continues to support graduate nursing education through the Duty Under Instruction program for the training of nurse practitioners. The Committee directs the Service Surgeons General in coordination with the Nursing Corps Chiefs to provide a report to the congressional defense committees no later than March 1, 2010 that presents a critical analysis of emerging trends in graduate nurse practitioner education, with an emphasis on the consideration of replacing Master’s in Nursing preparation with a Doctorate of Nursing Practice degree program.

Blood Markers for Traumatic Brain Injury.—The Committee is aware that inflammatory episodes can occur during Traumatic Brain Injury [TBI]. Upon injury, white blood cells can enter the injury sites and release inflammatory factors that in the short term can stop nerves from transmitting impulses and in the long term can lead to damage to the nerve. The Committee believes that an important aspect of understanding, and treating TBI includes research on what causes the blood to release these factors, and how these factors in the blood may be controlled and possibly even how other blood factors may be used to regenerate nerves as some research has shown might be possible. Therefore, the Committee urges the Department of Defense to investigate these concepts in its effort to research new ways to diagnose, treat, and rehabilitate TBI.

CHEMICAL AGENTS AND MUNITIONS DESTRUCTION, DEFENSE

Appropriations, 2009	$1,505,634,000
Budget estimate, 2010	1,560,760,000
House allowance	1,510,760,000
Committee recommendation	1,539,869,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $1,539,869,000. This is $20,891,000 below the budget estimate and includes $1,125,911,000 for Operation and Maintenance, $12,689,000 for Procurement, and $401,269,000 for Research, Development, Test and Evaluation.

Anniston Chemical Agent Disposal Facility.—The chemical agent stockpile at Anniston consists of blister and nerve agent in several munitions configurations. Disposal operations at the facility began in August 2003 and are now over 50 percent complete. As operations continue to progress toward completion, the Committee wants to ensure proper planning is taking place for the closure and potential reuse of the Anniston Chemical Agent Disposal Facility. The Committee, therefore, directs the Department to submit a report to the congressional defense committees no later than March 31, 2010, detailing the closure requirements and potential reuse of the Anniston Chemical Agent Disposal Facility. The Committee encourages the Department to include input and participation from government, contractor and community stakeholders in order to fully ascertain the optimal reuse of the facility. In addition, the Committee believes the Department should thoroughly analyze the skill sets that have been developed, examine what level of reuse is appropriate and lawful, and identify options for future Government or commercial use of the site.

TITLE IX
OVERSEAS CONTINGENCY OPERATIONS

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE—MILITARY

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $128,221,367,000 for operations related to overseas contingency operations. In fiscal year 2009 Congress appropriated $143,082,596,000 for activities funded in this title.

OVERVIEW

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

The Committee recommends $128,221,367,000 of additional appropriations for overseas contingency operations to fund military operations in fiscal year 2010. This funding will ensure that resources, equipment, and supplies are available for our servicemembers without interruption, and will enable the Department to avoid absorbing incremental operational costs from within baseline programs that are critical to future readiness and home-station activities.

The amounts appropriated or otherwise made available in this title are designated as being for overseas deployments and other activities pursuant to sections 401(c)(4) and 423(a)(1) of S. Con. Res. 13 (111th Congress), the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2010.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The Committee directs the Secretary of Defense to provide a report to the congressional defense committees within 30 days after the date of enactment of this legislation on the allocation of the funds within the accounts listed in this title. The Secretary shall submit updated reports 30 days after the end of each fiscal quarter until funds listed in this title are no longer available for obligation. The Committee further directs that these reports shall include: a detailed accounting of obligations and expenditures of appropriations provided in this title by program and subactivity group for the continuation of military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan; and a listing of equipment procured using funds provided in this title.

Additionally, the Committee directs that the Department continue to report incremental contingency operations costs for Operations Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom on a monthly basis in the Cost of War Execution report as required by Department of Defense Financial Management Regulation, chapter 23, volume 12. The Committee further directs the Department to continue to provide the Cost of War reports to the congressional defense committees that include the following information by appropriation: funding appropriated, funding allocated, monthly obligations, monthly disbursements, cumulative fiscal year obligations, and cumulative fiscal year disbursements.

The Committee continues to be disappointed by the responsiveness of the Defense Department in reports required in supplemental appropriations. While recent reporting has substantially improved the level of detail provided to the Committee, the reports arrive significantly later than required. Reports such as the quarterly reports on obligations for the global war on terror, quarterly reports for Lift and Sustain Authority, quarterly reports for Coalition Support Funds and quarterly reports for the Commander's Emergency Response Program have been submitted up to 6 months late. The Committee expects that these reports will be completed and delivered to the Committee by the proposed due dates and will include the required information.

The Committee expects that in order to meet unanticipated requirements, the Department of Defense may need to transfer funds within these appropriations accounts for purposes other than those specified in this report. The Committee directs the Department of Defense to follow normal prior approval reprogramming procedures should it be necessary to transfer funding between different appropriations accounts in this title.

Mine Clearance in Afghanistan.—The Committee is concerned that mine clearance and explosive remnants of war [ERW] disposal has not received sufficient attention by the Department, and believes greater emphasis must be placed on this issue to improve force protection and further national security objectives in Afghanistan. The Committee is troubled to learn the extent to which land mines and ERW have contributed to casualties of coalition forces and have been used as source materials for improvised explosive devices [IEDs]. According to the Department of Defense, 12 U.S. servicemembers were killed and 87 wounded in action from landmines or IEDs using landmine components in 2008. Over the same period, approximately 20 percent of IEDs used landmines as a component of their construction. The Committee is concerned that these statistics are trending upward in 2009. Immediate action is required to neutralize this threat to U.S. and coalition forces.

The Committee also understands that despite the success of current demining efforts more than 4 million Afghans still live in mine-contaminated areas and that Afghanistan’s ability to clear all landmines by 2013, as outlined in the Ottawa Convention, is in jeopardy without the infusion of additional resources. While the Department of State’s Office of Weapons Removal and Abatement is the lead U.S. agency for humanitarian mine action in Afghanistan, the Committee is aware of several projects led by the U.S. Army’s Humanitarian Demining Research and Development Program that have made significant contributions to demining efforts. This program has deployed equipment prototypes, including armored tractors, sifters and screeners, with non-governmental organizations to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of current demining efforts. The Committee believes that expansion of this successful program could dramatically enhance demining efforts and thereby open up additional land for farming and economic development while also destroying a major source of IED components used by insurgents. Therefore, the Committee directs the Secretary of Defense to report to the congressional defense committees within 90 days of enactment of this act describing current Department of Defense efforts to combat the threat of mines and ERW to U.S. and coalition forces. The report should also identify opportunities to improve DOD contributions to demining efforts in Afghanistan, and identify the resources or legislative authorities required to undertake such efforts.

Machine Language Translation Systems.—Due to a shortage of translators, the Committee is aware of the need for translation devices for deploying units to numerous overseas locations for various missions. The Department of the Army continues to work to meet those needs and attempts to provide effective machine language translation systems [MLTS] to soldiers in the field, but the Committee is concerned with the number of operational needs statements [ONS] for translation devices that have gone unanswered or are slow to be addressed. Therefore, the Committee directs that the Secretary of the Army report to the congressional defense committees no later than 90 days after the enactment of this act on the progress being made to prevent delays in processing operational needs statements for translation devices.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

The Committee recommends a total of $14,105,341,000 for pay, allowances, and other personnel costs for Active, Reserve, and Guard troops activated for duty in Iraq, Afghanistan, and other contingency operations. This recommendation includes funding for subsistence, permanent change of station travel, and special pays including imminent danger pay, family separation allowance, and hardship duty pay.

Commanders Emergency Response Program.—The Committee recommends $1,200,000,000 for the Commanders Emergency Response Program [CERP] in fiscal year 2010. Included in this amount is $1,000,000,000 for CERP in Afghanistan and $200,000,000 for CERP in Iraq. The Committee notes that the amount provided for CERP in Afghanistan effectively doubles what has been committed in Afghanistan to date for fiscal year 2009. The Committee also recognizes that with the redeployment from Iraq and withdrawal from the major cities, CERP requirements will decrease significantly in fiscal year 2010. As such, the Committee recommends the transfer of $300,000,000 to the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected Vehicle Fund in order to address an urgent unfunded theater requirement for additional M-ATVs.

The Committee made several attempts to gather necessary data from the Department of Defense in order to properly analyze the budget request for CERP and notes that the information provided was completely inadequate and failed to provide an appropriate justification for the request. The Committee directs the Department of Defense to drastically improve its justification material for future CERP requests to include the details behind developing the requirement. The Committee further directs the Army to submit monthly commitment, obligation, and expenditure data for CERP in Iraq and Afghanistan to the congressional defense committees no later than 30 days after each month.

The Committee recommends no appropriation. This is $115,300,000 below the budget estimate.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED PROGRAM

Iraq Freedom Fund.—The Committee recommends no appropriation for the Iraq Freedom Fund [IFF] and does not anticipate providing additional resources to this appropriation in the future. The Committee recommends funding for the Transportation of Fallen Heroes directly under the Transportation Working Capital Fund, where funds have been executed since fiscal year 2007. The Committee believes funds should be requested under this account in future budget submissions. The Committee recommends no funding requested to support the relocation and disposition of individuals detained at the Guantanamo Bay Naval Base. The Committee notes that the administration is still reviewing the future of the detention facility at Guantanamo Bay.

AFGHANISTAN SECURITY FORCES FUND

Appropriations, 2009	$5,606,939,000
Budget estimate, 2010	7,462,769,000

Afghanistan Security Forces Fund.—The Committee understands the importance of training, equipping, and sustaining the Afghanistan Security Forces and recommends $6,562,769,000 to continue those efforts. The Committee is also aware of an urgent unfunded requirement for MRAP-All Terrain Vehicles in Afghanistan and therefore recommends transferring $900,000,000 from the Afghanistan Security Forces Fund [ASFF] to the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected Vehicle Fund in order to address this requirement. The Committee notes that these funds would not be executed in ASFF until fiscal year 2011 and therefore are available to address this urgent force protection requirement.

PROCUREMENT

The Committee recommends $22,219,245,000 for the procurement accounts. The overseas contingency operations funding is to adequately provide for the costs of continuing combat and stability operations associated with Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. In the procurement appropriations, the Committee has recommended funding to replace combat losses and equipment left behind in theater, sustain munitions and other consumables, and reset the units returning home to an equipment-ready status. Funding adjustments were made in instances where funding was requested ahead of need or program execution has been delayed.

F/A-18 Super Hornet.—The Committee is concerned about the shortfall in the Navy's strikefighter inventory created by the aging of the older F/A-18 models and the fact that the F-35 Joint Strike Fighter program will not start delivering carrier aircraft in significant numbers for several years. The shortfall is currently estimated to be at least 129 aircraft; it could be well above that level if it extending the life of the F/A-18 out to 10,000 hours is cost prohibitive. To ensure that Navy has sufficient aircraft for the fleet, the Committee provides an increase of $512,280,000 to procure an additional nine 9 F/A-18s in fiscal year 2010. The Committee again encourages the Navy to pursue a multi-year procurement contract for these aircraft.

Up-armored Humvees.—The fiscal year 2010 budget request for overseas contingency operations includes $179,000,000 for the procurement of up-armored humvees. At the request of the Marine Corps, Congress previously appropriated $177,200,000 in fiscal year 2009 supplemental funding for the procurement of Frag Kit 4 underbody armor protection for M1114 vehicles in theater. However, the Committee understands that due to technical difficulties the Marine Corps has rescinded that requirement and will not procure any Frag Kit 4 kits. Therefore, the Committee directs the Marine Corps to apply the funds previously appropriated for the procurement of Frag Kit 4 kits for the procurement of armored tactical vehicles for contingency operations instead.

MINE RESISTANT AMBUSH PROTECTED VEHICLE FUND

Appropriations, 2009	$4,543,000,000
Budget estimate, 2010	5,456,000,000
House allowance	3,606,000,000
Committee recommendation	6,656,000,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $6,656,000,000. This is $1,200,000,000 above the budget estimate.

Mine Resistant Ambush Protected All Terrain Vehicles [M-ATV].—The budget request includes $5,456,000,000 for the sustainment and upgrades of MRAPs and for the procurement of M-ATVs. The Committee notes that this fully funds the current validated M-ATV requirement of 5,244 vehicles. However, the Committee is aware of a U.S. Central Command [CENTCOM] requirement for additional vehicles and has added $1,200,000,000 for the procurement of additional M-ATVs to address this urgent unfunded need. The Committee remains concerned by the Services' continued failure to budget for MRAP/M-ATV sustainment in their base budgets. Given the enduring force protection capabilities these vehicles provide, the Committee finds this inadequate.

Counternarcotics Efforts in Afghanistan.—The Committee is concerned that in spite of United States counternarcotics efforts in Afghanistan, approximately 90 percent of the world’s illicit opiates are still produced in the country. This represents a significant threat to Afghanistan’s political stability and economic development. The Congressional Research Service noted in a July 2009 report that “Narcotics trafficking . . . [generates] what U.S. commanders estimate to be about $100,000,000 per year for the Taliban.”

The Committee believes that even stronger counternarcotics efforts are key to breaking up the evolution of narco-cartels in Afghanistan and to securing and stabilizing the country. The Committee supports new protocols set forth by the U.S. Department of Defense to increase their assistance in international counternarcotics operations and encourages the Department to continue its involvement in this aspect of contingency operations to the fullest extent possible.

Joint Improvised Explosive Device Defeat Organization.—The Joint Improvised Explosive Device Defeat Organization [JIEDDO] continues to play a critically vital mission in protecting our troops from improvised explosive devices and attacking the terrorist networks responsible for them. The Committee recommends funding JIEDDO in the overseas contingency operations [OCO] title. The Committee continues to believe that these requirements are war-related and should be funded through the OCO process.

The Committee is disappointed that the reporting requirements directed under Public Law 111–32, The Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2009 has not been adhered to, but is aware that efforts are underway to improve that status. The Committee continues to direct JIEDDO to submit to the congressional defense committees monthly commitment, obligation, and expended data by line of operation and by year of appropriation. Further, the Committee directs JIEDDO to submit to the congressional defense committees, monthly reports of obligation data on a project by project basis by line on operation. The Committee also continues to direct JIEDDO to follow standard reprogramming procedures when transferring a cumulative amount of $20,000,000 or more between lines of operation.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

Appropriations, 2009	$9,551,000
Budget estimate, 2010	8,876,000
House allowance	8,876,000
Committee recommendation	8,876,000

The Committee recommends an appropriation of $8,876,000. This is equal to the budget estimate.

GENERAL PROVISIONS—THIS TITLE

SEC. 9001. Provides that funds made available in this title are in addition to amounts appropriated or made available for the Department of Defense for fiscal year 2010.

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 9002. Provides special transfer authority of up to $4,000,000,000 of funds in this title, subject to the terms and conditions in section 8005 of this act.

SEC. 9003. Provides the authority to obligate supervision and administration costs associated with overseas construction projects at the time the project is awarded.

SEC. 9004. Provides for the procurement of motor vehicles for use by military and civilian employees of the Department of Defense in Iraq and Afghanistan.

SEC. 9005. Provides authority of up to $1,200,000,000 of funds in this title to fund the Commander's Emergency Response Program.

SEC. 9006. Provides for the use of funds to lift and sustain coalition forces supporting military and stability operations in Iraq and Afghanistan and requires quarterly reports to the congressional defense committees.

SEC. 9007. Designates funds in this title as being for overseas deployments and other activities pursuant to section 401(c)(4) and 423(a)(1) of S. Con. Res. 13 (111th Congress), the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2010.

SEC. 9008. Prohibits the use of funds made available in this act to establish any permanent military installation or base in Iraq or Afghanistan.

SEC. 9009. Provides reporting requirements and reprogramming thresholds for the Iraq Security Forces Fund, the Afghanistan Security Forces Fund, and the Pakistan Counterinsurgency Fund.

SEC. 9010 Prohibits the transfer, release, or incarceration of any individual who was detained as of October 1, 2009, at Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, to or within the United States or its territories.

SEC. 9011 Provides funding for fuel requirements.

COMPLIANCE WITH PARAGRAPH 7, RULE XVI OF THE
STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE

Paragraph 7 of rule XVI requires that Committee reports on general appropriations bills identify each Committee amendment to the House bill “which proposes an item of appropriation which is not made to carry out the provisions of an existing law, a treaty stipulation, or an act or resolution previously passed by the Senate during that session.”

The following amounts in the accounts listed exceed the amounts authorized in S. 1390, the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2010, as passed the Senate.

	Amount
Operation and Maintenance, Defense-Wide	$531,653,000
Operation and Maintenance, Air Force Reserve	6,472,000
Environmental Restoration, Army	15,000,000
Environmental Restoration, Formerly Used Defense Sites	40,000,000
Shipbuilding and Conversion, Navy	1,607,733,000
Other Procurement, Air Force	854,931,000
National Guard and Reserve Equipment	1,500,000,000
Defense Health Program	805,690,000

COMPLIANCE WITH PARAGRAPH 7(c), RULE XXVI OF THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE

Pursuant to paragraph 7(c) of rule XXVI, on September 10, 2009, the Committee ordered reported H.R. 3326, making appropriations for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2010, and for other purposes, with an amendment in the nature of a substitute; with the bill subject to further amendment and consistent with the budget allocation, by a recorded vote of 30–0, a quorum being present. The vote was as follows:

Yeas	Nays
Chairman Inouye
Mr. Byrd
Mr. Leahy
Mr. Harkin
Ms. Mikulski
Mr. Kohl
Mrs. Murray
Mr. Dorgan

Mr. Voinovich
Ms. Murkowski

COMPLIANCE WITH PARAGRAPH 12, RULE XXVI OF THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE

Paragraph 12 of rule XXVI requires that Committee reports on a bill or joint resolution repealing or amending any statute or part of any statute include “(a) the text of the statute or part thereof which is proposed to be repealed; and (b) a comparative print of that part of the bill or joint resolution making the amendment and of the statute or part thereof proposed to be amended, showing by stricken-through type and italics, parallel columns, or other appropriate typographical devices the omissions and insertions which would be made by the bill or joint resolution if enacted in the form recommended by the Committee.”

There are no such changes in the bill.

NOTE.—Consistent with the funding recommended in the bill for “overseas deployments and other activities” and in accordance with section 401(c)(4) of Senate Concurrent Resolution 13 (111th Congress), the Committee anticipates that the Budget Committee will file a revised section 302(a) allocation for the Committee on Appropriations reflecting an upward adjustment of $128,221,367,000 in budget authority plus associated outlays.

DISCLOSURE OF CONGRESSIONALLY DIRECTED SPENDING ITEMS

The Constitution vests in the Congress the power of the purse. The Committee believes strongly that Congress should make the decisions on how to allocate the people’s money.

As defined in Rule XLIV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the term “congressional directed spending item” means a provision or report language included primarily at the request of a Senator, providing, authorizing, or recommending a specific amount of discretionary budget authority, credit authority, or other spending authority for a contract, loan, loan guarantee, grant, loan authority, or other expenditure with or to an entity, or targeted to a specific State, locality or congressional district, other than through a statutory or administrative, formula-driven, or competitive award process.

For each item, a Member is required to provide a certification that neither the Member nor the Senator’s immediate family has a pecuniary interest in such congressionally directed spending item. Such certifications are available to the public on the website of the Senate Committee on Appropriations (www.appropriations.senate.gov/senators.cfm).

Following is a list of congressionally directed spending items included in the Senate recommendation discussed in this report, along with the name of each Senator who submitted a request to the Committee of jurisdiction for each item so identified. Neither the Committee recommendation nor this report contains any limited tax benefits or limited tariff benefits as defined in rule XLIV.

Additional information on potential recipients is available on the Committee website.
